An evening of dance

Summary: Students, faculty and alumni will be featured in an evening of dance and art January 27-28 in the Proscenium Theatre.

(January 10, 2006)-Chase away the winter chill with an enchanting evening of dance on Friday and Saturday, Jan. 27-28, in the Proscenium Theatre, located in the Humanities Fine Arts building at the University of Minnesota, Morris.

Presented by the UMM Humanities Division Dance Program, this event will feature dances by Ferolyn Angell, who has taught dance in the Morris area for 21 years, and Jennifer Sommers, a newcomer to west central Minnesota who has set works for companies throughout the country.

The program will also feature sculptures by Morris artist and UMM professor of studio art, Jenny Nellis, along with a fascinating selection of world, classical and modern music. The performers in the program are UMM alumna Renee Oberg dance faculty Ferolyn Angell and Jennifer Sommers a faculty spouse, Sally Finzel and a number of current UMM Dance Ensemble students.

The program begins at 7:30 p.m. Tickets will be sold at the door. The cost of tickets is $7 for general admission and $3 for students and seniors. Parts of this activity are supported by a grant from the Lake Region Arts Council with funds from the McKnight Foundation.

Free parking is available in the North Parking Lot on campus, directly across from the side entrance to Humanities Fine Arts.

Through personal and academic discovery, the University of Minnesota, Morris provides opportunities for students to grow intellectually, engage in community, experience environmental stewardship and celebrate diversity. A renewable and sustainable educational experience, Morris prepares graduates for careers, for advanced degrees, for lifelong learning, for work world flexibility in the future, and for global citizenship.
